Dear Parent(s)/Guardian(s):

Thank you for interest in the Pearls and Gems Pageant hosted by Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated, Phi Tau Omega Chapter. The Pearls and Gems Pageant is one of the chapters' primary fundraising activities. The pageant is structured to actively engage your child through skill building that promotes lifelong personal and academic development. The pageant is geared towards young ladies and gentlemen between the ages of three and fourteen years old. The ladies of Phi Tau Omega pride themselves on producing a quality pageant that is geared toward personal character development and community building experiences for the next generation. The pageant will give the participants the opportunity to work together and learn to respect one another and value each other's differences.

Proceeds from this pageant will be used for tokens, gifts, and prizes for the participants, non-profit and community donations. Each participant is expected to raise a minimum amount of $1,500.00.

Please find enclosed the information and guidelines for the pageant. An information session will be held on Saturday, August 6, 2011 at 9:00am at the Teaching Museum South located at 689 North Avenue, Hapeville, Georgia 30354. Please bring all forms in this packet filled out and signed along with the $500.00 registration fee. Acceptable forms of payment for the registration fee are cash, cashier's check, or money order. The registration fee includes all pageant activities and the formal attire for the evening of the pageant. All fees and funds required to be raised will be explained at this information session.

We encourage you and your child's attendance at this information session. Please contact the chairman of the Pearls and Gems Pageant, Ms. Shewanda Pattillo, at (770) 365-6022 if you are interested in participating but unable to attend the information session.

Thank you for taking such an active role in your child's development. We look forward to working with you.
